Royal Over-Seas League | London

Welcome...

The Royal Over-Seas League is a unique London club with an atmosphere of graceful elegance, grandeur and comfort which blend with every type of occasion.

The Grade I listed building is ideal for everything from a small syndicate workshop to major conference, corporate celebrations, spectacular exhibitions or a memorable wedding.

The club has an eclectic collection of rooms and styles from period rooms with exquisite views over Green Park to our newly refurbished Princess Alexandra Hall. Seven meeting and function rooms are available, with the largest accommodating up to 250 guests whilst others seat between 2 and 50 people. Bedroom accommodation is available on request.

A little bit of background...

Convex Leisure oversees all aspects of catering at the Royal Over-Seas League.

Our expertise ranges from canapés and buffets to fine dining. Our chefs use the freshest produce of the finest quality to prepare dishes that offer perfect balance of flavour, texture and colour served with style and panache

The Royal Over-Seas League is a Commonwealth membership organisation with a long history of welcoming diplomats, travellers, writers and business people to work, relax and exchange ideas. The ideal meeting venue...

Our Rooms

Princess Alexandra Hall

The newly refurbished Princess Alexandra Hall is complete with integrated audio-visual facilities and superb acoustics making it ideal for conferences, concerts and presentations. By night the room has an impressive deep blue lighting which sets off the atmosphere for a fine dining dinner with dance floor or a cocktail reception. This room is fully air conditioned.
